WORMSLOE ESTATE

Famous for its long road of Spanish moss covered oaks, this estate is worth a visit to soak up the dreamy landscape of Savannah.

$10

7601 Skidaway Rd, Savannah, GA 31406

9AM-5PM

SKIDAWAY STATE PARK

If the Savannah marsh is what takes your breath away, Skidaway Island is for you. This state park has walking trails and wooden bridges that cross the wetlands. The park also has events and outdoor movies. Follow their Facebook page to see what's going on during your visit.

$5 per car

52 Diamond Causeway, Savannah, GA 31411

7AM-10PM

FORT PULASKI

On the way to Tybee Island, highway 80 has a bridge to the left that leads to Cockspar Island- Home of Fort Pulaski. Weekend cannon demonstrations are a hit and tours make the history come to life with interesting stories told by the Park Rangers. There is a walking trail that leads to Cocspur's lighthouse (during low-tide) and another trail that leads to a beach area great for fishing and watching boats sail by.

$10- Adults, free for military and dependents

US-80, Savannah, GA 31410
